Thempson's Compausal Syrup of Tax and Wood Neighba—Hi a man ails, common sense will aggest that he ought to have recourse to probe me licines for the removal of his adments. This stay he done either by consulting a respectable physician or by taking a preparation which had been properly tested, land met with the universa approval of the public. This plan, however, is action adopted overing to the specious advertasements of villainous quacitis, who unhimshingly assert that one particular medicine will cure every disease that flesh is here to from the 'tooth ache to the gout. These wicked fabrications are read by a migrity of the people, who swallow the bait, the result of the public are first plundered flesh half it not quite poisoned and the rogue's fortune if made quad erad deminstrandum. How much better it wouk be if toolbe and the rogue's fortune if made quad erad deminstrandum. How much better it wouk be if toolbe and the rogue's fortune if made quad erad deminstrandum. How much better it wouk be if toolbe would inquire into the maris of a particular redicine before purchasing. Y would remove all dubts, and secure the purchasir from imposition. As make the above remarks to introduce to our redars. Thompson's Corapount Syrup of Tar and Wood Naptha, a preparation of a middle tions and diseases of the lungs and throat. This medicine we have used with the most tramphant a results, and many cases of affections of the lungs have bome under our notice which were speedily cared by a few britles of Thompson's Corapound Syrup of Tar and Wood Naptha. Be paincular and get the genume. It is prepared only by Agney & Dickson, at the N E corner of Fifth and Sprute
